Hey Rick,

You mentioned earlier you were going to get a name at WSCS. Let me know if you need any help with that. Also, I'd recommend getting a name other than Rick Pearson. You're already Rick Pearson at Seeking and The Street so its good to branch out.

Also, please don't tell too many people that they should get accounts at Wall St. Cheat. Right now, it's absolute perfection for getting articles published, especially on illiquid pennies. The last thing we want is for a whole bunch of guys to come in and ruin it for everyone.

Thx,

T
