Dream Team people do only pay $300. I actually stopped working with them. The work I did for [XXXXXX] was through another company wasn't with them. I am not sure who you talk to their work with Dream Team, but some of the articles that I saw were very second rate articles and really can work trying to get people to buy into the company. Very poorly written. Dream Team were the only ones that paid that low to me. When I told people I charge $525, they didn't blink. I only wrote for Tom you times because he just didn't pay enough and I thought the company was very shady.
