SNGX: Soligenix

Soligenix (OTCQB:SNGX) has been discussed fairly extensively on these boards, however, I believe that these articles have not succinctly laid out the catalyst pathway for value creation that is typically required to sustain interest and share price movement. In short, SNGX has a unique technology platform and robust early-stage pipeline, which is somewhat unique, but the real value driver for the shares are its pedigree of partnership caliber, and upcoming contract catalysts that stand to materially impact the total enterprise value. With much of the heavy science already laid out in previous articles, I will focus on crystallizing the value drivers & risk/reward profile.

Background: Technology Platform

SNGX's technology platform, with lead compound SGX94,...
